

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

OAK MEADOW PARK REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

OAK HILL PLAYLOT REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

1

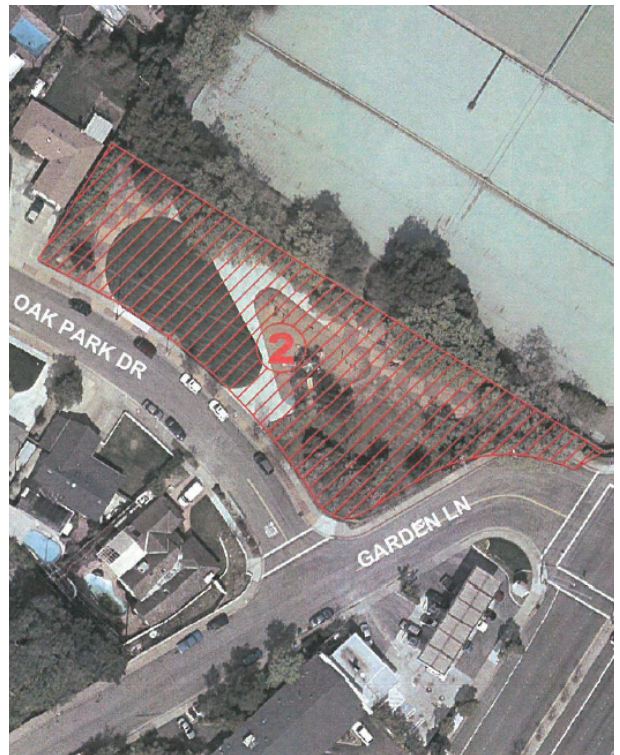

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

2

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

3

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

LA RINCONADA PARK REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

1

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

2

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

3

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

HOWES PLAY LOT REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

1

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

2

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

3

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

CIVIC CENTER REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

1

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

2

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

3

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

BLOSSOM HILL PARK REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

1

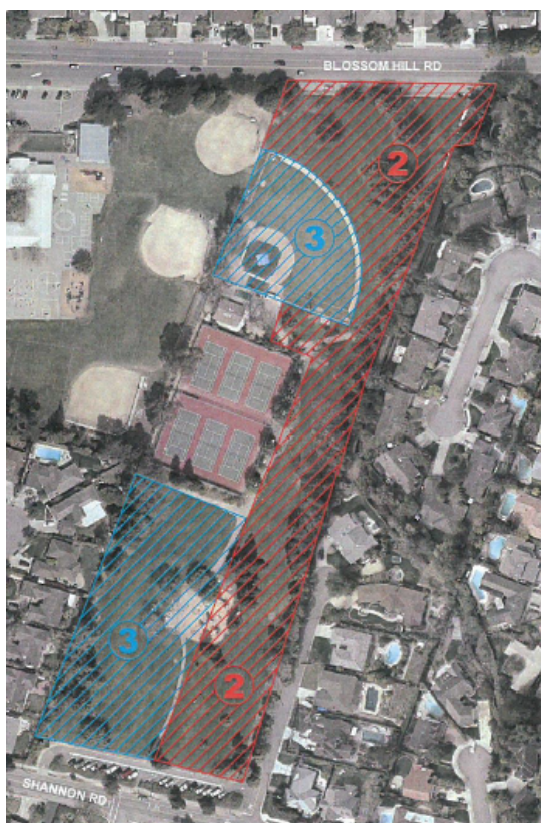

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

2

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

3

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

BELGATOS PARK REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

1

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

2

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

3

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

BACHMAN PARK REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

1

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

2

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

3

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG

What is the Town of Los Gatos doing to be Drought Ready?

#DroughtReadyLG

NOTICE OF REDUCED PARK IRRIGATION

On June 9, 2021, Valley Water's Board of Directors adopted Resolution 21-86 declaring an emergency water shortage, and calling for water savings of 15% compared to 2019 usage.

Park irrigation has been identified as the heaviest source of water use for the Town of Los Gatos. In order to meet the call for 15% water reduction, the Town will be reducing irrigation throughout Town parks.

LIVE OAK MANOR REDUCED IRRIGATION AREAS

1

The yellow area designated by the number "1" will not receive irrigation

2

The red area designated by the number "2" will receive limited irrigation. The area will be monitored to keep turf alive, but some areas may be yellow or brown.

3

The blue area designated by the number "3" will receive slightly more water to keep the turf usable. Some areas may still have yellowing.

For Drought Ready resources scan the QR code
or visit www.losgatosca.gov/DroughtReadyLG